Yukon Picture And Other Big Films Coming

Torrance Theatre Announces
More Vaudeville for Tuesday Night

Seena Owen wears the most valuable coat ever used in a motion picture during her portrayal of the title role in "The Flame of the Yukon." Metropolitan's new screen version of the famous gold-rush classic, which will be on view at the Torrance Theatre Thursday and Friday. While having the appearance of a fur coat, the garment in reality was made from the breasts of more than 400 sea-erme, native Alaskan birds of the plover variety. This coat was a gift to Miss Owen from John T. Spickett, pioneer theatre owner of Alaska. The coat represents a great amount of painstaking labor, photographs better than fur, and is many times lighter and much warmer. Needless to say, Miss Owen values it highly.

There's a new way to get into the movies!

There's a little chap playing in "The Phantom of the Forest," at the Torrance Theatre Saturday, who can tell you what it is. It worked for him, anyway, and that is more than can be said nowadays for a good many dodges, including the one about winning the beauty contest in Hometown or coming to Hollywood because all the folks at home said that you were a "panic" and ought to be in the movies.

Little Buck Black, who plays the Irish lad in "The Senor Daredevil," which is a Charles R. Rogers production directed by Al Rogell, told his first casting director that he, Buck, didn't know if he could act or not—but he could chew a dog's tail! They took him at his word and gave him the chance—but he called their bluff, too—and did it! And he's working in the movies ever since that day—not so long ago, for Buck is only 10.

In "The Senor Daredevil," which is a First National picture, Little Buck has the part of Pat Muldoon, the Irish youngster who accompanies Ken Maynard, as the "Senor," through most of the exciting sequences of the picture—and there are plenty of them.

A spectacular forest fire, "Thunder," the Marvel Dog, and scenic backgrounds of marvelous beauty are a few of the high spots of the latest Gotham production, "The Phantom of the Forest," which will be the headliner at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday.

In this picture Thunder, more so than ever, demonstrates his right to his title, "The Marvel Dog," as this wonderful animal displays a degree of animal intelligence that is nothing short of phenomenal.

The story of "The Phantom of the Forest" is a thrilling melodrama based upon a mysterious dog which, like Robin Hood, roams the forests like a ghost. This dog is befriended by a girl, and in return he saves the girl's life and fortune and incidentally starts a romance both for her and himself.

Betty Francisco is the girl and Eddie Phillips is the handsome hero. Others in the cast include James Mason, Irene Hunt and Frank Foster Davis. Henry McCarty directed the production, which was made from a story by Frank Foster Davis, owner of "Thunder."

There will be five acts of selected vaudeville at the Torrance Tuesday.

Vienna before the war. Bewitching, mad Vienna, with its light-hearted gaiety, its capricious disregard of the conventions, its singeing and its waltzes, forms the background of a charming yet virile story. From royal palace, stately, regal and solemn, to the wine gardens of old Vienna, where love and wine and song mingle gayly, the romance of a princess grows in "The Waltz Dream," a new UFA film which will be seen at the Torrance Theatre next Tuesday.

"The Waltz Dream" was the biggest hit of the New York theatrical season some years ago on the legitimate stage. Many companies sought vainly to secure the film rights. But Oscar Strauss, composer of the music, and Hans Muelner, who wrote the book, "Nix, the Prince Consort," felt that only a continental producer could do the theme justice. UFA, accordingly, achieved the privilege of transferring it to the screen.

A lavish picture has resulted—a picture filled with sentiment and box office appeal. Previews have shown the American response to this great romance. It packs a powerful punch as a climax to the love of a princess for an Austrian officer and the renunciation of her sweetheart by a girl of the people. It is bound to appeal to everybody, wherever played.

Russian Opera Star Headlines Orpheum Menu

Mlle. Odali Careno Appears on Bill Starting Next Sunday

One of Russia's most noted operatic stars, Mlle. Odali Careno, will be the outstanding stellar attraction at the Orpheum Sunday matinee Nov. 7. Mlle. Careno, formerly prima donna of the Petrograd Grand Opera Company, has just recently been persuaded to enter vaudeville. She has appeared in only two cities, and in each she has been acclaimed as the outstanding hit of the season. Mlle. Careno heads a most unusual array of vaudeville stars next week, for on the same bill will be nothing but feature acts. Roy Cummings, the famous comedian, with Irene Shaw, will present "One Afternoon"; Dora Maughan, the clever songstress and comedienne, will offer "The Barrymores and Me"; George Wiest and Ray Stanton, assisted by Gladys Gerrish and a large company of entertainers, will bring a noble revue, "A Little Rhyme and Less Reason"; Bill Robinson will hold over for a second week and will present an entirely new act in every detail, as will Robert Emmett Keane and Claire Whitney, who will appear in "The Gossipy Sex." Walter Fahl, with Edith Shaw and twelve artists, will offer the "Magic Wand," an unusual novelty; and one other Orpheum act will complete the new program.

EDUCATIONAL CENTER

Register the babies for Mothers' Educational Center. The next meeting will be held tomorrow, Friday, Nov. 5, at the Women's Clubhouse, from 10 until noon.

RUBBER PRICES GOING HIGHER!

Rubber to Bounce Upward in Price
LONDON, OCT. 30.—(A.P.)—New rubber regulations will become operative Monday when the percentage which may be exported from Ceylon and Malaya for the ensuing quarter will be reduced from 100 to 80 per cent on the standard of production. This was because the average price of rubber for the current quarter was below 21 pence. The question of the disposal of the unused export coupons, representing from thirty to forty thousand tons, has not been decided by the colonial office, but announcement on this subject is expected soon. There had been apprehension that the colonial office might cancel these unused export coupons as a further measure of restriction.

The two stories from Sunday's Los Angeles newspapers reprinted in this advertisement are a FAIR WARNING to motorists to BUY THEIR TIRES NOW, before this advance in crude rubber is reflected in tires.

But there is a DOUBLE BUYING ADVANTAGE in BUYING YOUR WINTER TIRES NOW, as we are offering SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTIONS on the celebrated KELLY SPRINGFIELD TIRES as a means of getting you acquainted with the EXTRA MILEAGE you receive from "KELLYS." Higher Rubber Prices Seen; Quota Reduced LONDON, Oct. 30.—The rubber export quota for the three months ending January 31 was today announced as 80 per cent of the production. This is a reduction of 20 per cent in the amount of rubber permitted to be exported, as during the past few months the British government has been permitting 100 per cent exportation. In financial circles here it was predicted that the action of the government would be followed by an immediate increase in rubber prices.
